THE MOTHER GIRL.

She is not a fond of fashion, nor a bumptious style. And there are no longer trappings in her dress, nor in her smile; Needs no artificial fixing to enhance her girlish charms.

As she walks along, she captures o'er the plumpness of her arms As she walks up the dishes and the table.

Dancing gayly as she passes her to the music of his song,

In her frank expression of a pure maternal love.

That makes her the envy of those angel up above.

She's the joy of every home Underneath your arching dome Till she gives her heart's affection to

Lucky who wins the true, Loving, loyal maiden who Has married the daily burden from her mother.

When the weekly toll is over, and she dons her Sunday gown There is a simple, painless darling on the earth to turn her down.

In the winning game of fashion, though she wears costly jewels, can outshine the mother girl,

Sweet simplicity is noted in her unassuming grace.

And she needs no color, touching to put bloom into her face For the bright glow of health is coursing through her veins, her rosy cheeks and the occasion by the decorative brush.

The very fairest gem in our human diadem

Search creation and you cannot find

Of the face of all the earth That possesses half the worth

Of the girl who lifts the burden from her mother.

News, news, news! It is hard to give you a summary of what is going on in the world; nobody dead; nobody broken an arm or a head; nobody come in to talk of the "erap"; no one got run over for taking a turn; nobody buried and nobody born. On the other hand, it is hard to sum up to come in and kick up a rumpus; someone to stir up the peace; somebody air; somebody's comment to give us a scare. Somebody thumped within an inch of his life; somebody ran off with another man's wife; someone come in and pay off their dues; anything, anything, just as it's news.

Good news, good news! The world is getting better and better. The world is getting better and better. The world is getting better and better.

Over 2,000 Democratic Precinct Elections. Board, 11th Democratic County Elects Board, and so solidly Democratic State Elects Board, every one the creation of Mr. Goebel or his agents—certified to the colored people of the South to be held in Kentucky on Tuesday, November 7th, 1898.

William S. Taylor... 193,714

William Goebel... 191,331

Taylor's Plurality... 2,383

A POLITICAL party that cannot stand by its predictions will naturally run away from its platforms.

DURING the last Democratic Administration the dinner-pail of the workingman was usually filled with food for reflection.

Is contemplating the result of the Kentucky murder case it should be borne in mind that the prosecution had the pernicious assistance of a partisan trial Judge.

THE LEDGER tenders its most distinguished considerations and felicitations to Editor-Judge WYATT of Fleming county. May his subscription list never grow less.

The trial of "Cactus Pete," alias GEORGE FRANKLIN WEAVER, a strolling barber by profession and a liar by choice, is now in progress before the County Court at Georgetown. It will be recalled that the Hon. Mr. Weaver is the gentleman who swore that he saw a gun barrel sticking out of CALER Powers' office window when GOEBEL was shot; and now there are dozens of good men who are swearing that WEAVER was at Grayson Springs, nearly a hundred miles from Frankfort, when the shot was fired. WEAVER's eyesight, being of the long-distance variety, ought to be a fortune to him.

THE LEDGER has the following card from ex-Governor W. O. BRADLEY, which is self-explanatory:

Editor Public Ledger: The publication in The Courier Journal of the 1st instant is most interesting. There is a record of my order calling out the State Guard in Louisville which appears on the executive journal.

It is not necessary to make orders approving payrolls. In each instance where troops were called out by me, the payroll certificate to Adjutant General was received by me and on file in the Auditor's office.

I do not remember whether the payroll of State Guard at Louisville was filed before the expiration of my term, December 12th; but if it was paid the proper indorsement will be found upon it.

W. O. BRADLEY.

CAN it be possible that President HAYEMEYER of the Democratic Sugar Trust is trying to assist in the election of BRYAN by advancing the price of sugar?

There is no doubt that the Sugar Trust owes BRYAN a debt of gratitude. It will be remembered that the Nebraskan, while a member of the House of Representatives in 1894, voted for the Wilson Tariff Bill, which included a sugar schedule that had been written by Secretary CARLISLE at the dictation of Mr. HAYEMEYER. That Tariff Bill was most favorable to the Trust, because it increased the Protection on refined sugar to 46.07% ad valorem, as against the Protection of 16.12% afforded by the McKinley Law. Under the provisions of the Wilson-Gorman Law, for which BRYAN voted, the Sugar Trust was enabled to monopolize almost completely the business of refining and selling sugar in the United States. When the Republicans returned to power they passed the Dingley Bill, in which the differential duty on refined sugar was reduced very materially—the reduction being, in fact, from 25 to 40% from the differential fixed by the Wilson-Gorman Law. The favorable conditions enjoyed by the Trust under the schedule of the Wilson-Gorman Law, which President CLEVELAND referred to as a measure that might possibly look like favoritism to the Trusts, were destroyed. Then President HAYEMEYER tried to get even with the Republicans. In his testimony before the Industrial Commission at Washington he falsely declared that Protection was the mother of all Trusts, thus giving the Democrats valuable ammunition for use during the campaign.

WEAVER'S DEFENS.

He Denies the Testimony of the Prosecution's Witnesses and Refers to His First Statements.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 24.—The trial of George Weaver was continued in county court, and after recalling several who testified with the defense, Weaver was put on the stand, and said he intended the officers of the sheriff of Woodford County to be present at Grayson Springs on January 23, not January 30, as stated by several witnesses, and a copy of two reports of membership of the Grayson lodge, sent by Weaver to the grand lodges, were introduced, and the witness stated he had received the copies from Louisville and that he had them in a trunk there.

The papers showed that the officers, with one exception, were installed on January 23. He said he went to Frankfort on January 23. Stopped at a hotel on Main street and remained until after breakfast the next morning. He said he went to Frankfort recently at the instance of Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin to see if he could find any information where he had been on January 23. He then repeated the story that he told of being on the capitol grounds January 30 and seeing the hands of a man withdrawing a rifle from a window.

Long John Lovett, attorney that Weaver had received a package on the 21st and about 15 minutes later called him in to identify the papers. He said the copies of reports introduced in evidence were the papers Weaver had received.

George Smith, of Barberville, testified that Weaver had told him what he knew, had drawn a plot of the grounds and indicated from which building the shot came. On the stand in the Powers case Weaver said he did not know how many buildings there were on the grounds.

Frank Baker, special bailiff, who brought Weaver from Knox county, said Weaver was unwilling to come to testify in the Powers case.

An examination of the letter introduced in evidence, which Weaver says he wrote in Louisville on the afternoon of January 30, shows that Weaver made use of this expression: "I am going from here to Cincinny and Milward, this town."

"I am going to Milward, when all the witnesses for the defense had been examined attachments were issued for absent witnesses and the case was adjourned until September 3.

RIOTING STOPPED

There Has Been No Further Disturbance at Akron, O., and None is Expected.

STATE MILITIA PATROL THE CITY

Nearly a Score of People Suffering From the Wounds of Pistol Ball, Buckshot and Missiles.

The Innocent Once Were Those to Blame, While the Guilty Ones Were Practically Uninjured—A List of the Victims.

Akron, O., Aug. 24.—This city, which not exactly under martial law, is being patrolled by nine companies of the 4th regiment, brought here by the riots of Thursday morning, when day dawned Thursday morning, it revealed a scene of desolation and the most complete and lawless anarchy unparalleled in the history of this city. The rioters had done their awful work and had dispersed. One child was lying cold and dead, and nearly a score of people were suffering from the wounds of pistol balls, buckshot and missiles. The city bulking was a heap of smoking ruins, and beside it steamed the water-soaked ashes of Columbia hall.

At 9:20 nine companies of the 4th regiment arrived in the city and maintained the scenes of rioting. Shortly before 11 o'clock, Major E. Young issued a proclamation closing every saloon in Akron until further orders.

In the Akron riot history again repeated itself—the innocent ones were the ones to blame, while the guilty ones were practically uninjured.

The revised list of the killed and wounded is as follows:

Glenn Wade, aged 12 years, son of Lilian Wade, Empire hotel, shot through the heart and instantly killed.

Rhoda Davidson, aged 4 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson, shot through the head and will die.

Fred Vorwerk, buckshot wound in abdomen.

W. M. Dusell, fireman, flesh wound in leg.

Park Stair, flesh wound in leg.

John E. Washer, scalp wound from brick.

Arthur E. Sprague, teamster, scalp wound.

John Ahren, painter, flesh wound in arm.

L. Chetneltaki, flesh wound in the hand.

Albert Grant, flesh wound below the knee.

Frank Sanders, flesh wound in hand.

E. Shollay, American express driver, buckshot in abdomen.

Albert Stevens, living at Graham station, Northfield, shot in foot.

Fireman L. Manchester, flesh wound in cheek and neck.

Fireman W. Roopke, flesh wound in neck.

Fireman Minor Fritz, flesh wound in cheek.

Fireman John Denious, flesh wound in leg.

Fireman A. Eberly, flesh wound in breast.

Fireman David Phillips, flesh wound in leg.

Policeman Alvin Greenlee, struck over heart by brick.

Policeman John King, knee injured by brick.

Policeman Ed Dunn, struck by brick.

The scene of the rioting was visited by thousands. The people of Akron were restless. Every one appeared to be waiting for trouble, but none occurred.

During the day wild rumors were current that mobs were being formed to go to Cleveland and lynch Peck, but there was no good ground for the rumor. The arrival of the troops directed the attention of the mob leaders to the idea of making effect on those who would have delighted in a recurrence of the rioting. The city officials secured the old post office, corner of Mill street and Broadway, for temporary quarters.

At 12:30 in the afternoon, at the Buechel hotel between Mayor Young and the militia, officers dead lines were established and soldiers were placed in different parts of the downtown section of the city.

New Telephone Company. Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 24.—With a capital stock of $30,000, a new organization, known as the Commercial Telephone Company, has just articles of incorporation, having purchased from the Warsaw Telephone Co. its local system and all its toll lines, which connect 48 points in Northern Indiana. Warsaw became the center station. The new company will assume control Sept. 1.

Insuring Out the Aberndales. Washington, Aug. 24.—The Aberndale, a large steel vessel of the Lehigh Navigation Co., will shortly leave for the Asiatic station with a full cargo of supplies for the squadron duty there.

Cotton Destroyed By Fire. Santander, Spain, Aug. 24.—Four thousand five hundred and eighty bales of cotton brought from Liverpool by the Spanish steamer Ida Lee were destroyed in a warehouse here by fire.

Santiago de Cuba. Aug. 24.—Gov. Gen. Wood arrived here, was received by 5,000 cheering Cubans, who lined the streets from the wharf to the city, where the civil authorities were present, was held.

Chinese Bandit Killed. Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 24.—Silver Rico, a much feared bandit, was killed by Lieut. Marino Moncada, of the Royal guard, at Songo.

BUFFALO TRAGEDY.

Paul Adams Shoots Miss O'Brien and Then Puts a Bullet Through His Head.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Paul Adams, 26 years old, shot Miss O'Brien, 49 years old, bulleting an injury that will probably prove fatal, and then shot himself, dying instantly. Miss O'Brien is proprietor of the Majestic, a small hotel, and Adams was unemployed, disputed and generally offensive and was dismissed. The woman, however, concluded to befriend him until he became a nuisance, and then she had him sent to the penitentiary as a vagrant.

As soon as he was released he came into town, went to the hotel and asked Miss O'Brien about a note he had written. Her reply evidently displeased him, and he drew a revolver, firing four shots, one of which took effect in her face. Adams then fired a shot into his head and fell dead.

Murder Over Money.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 24.—Early in the morning Harry Flotz, employed by the Barber Asphalt Co.; Lee Coyne, employed in the Union Pacific shop, and E. Melvin, a laborer, killed E.

Paul M. Eller, in a barrel over money which he had taken in his possession. All three were arrested and taken to the police station, where they made a full confession, saying that when Flotz declined to treat them with his feet with their fists and kicked him in the stomach. As they were leaving Flotz staggered to his feet and died.

Funeral Dispute in India.

New York, Aug. 24.—The committee of 100 of India famine relief received a cablegram from Wm. T. Fee, United States consul at Bombay, charging the American Indian relief committee, which reads: "Funeral expenses of deceased will be paid by the government." E. Melvin, a laborer, however, maintained that his government had declared war against China and that, therefore, there was no reason to prevent him carrying his relatives to the sacred premises.

Judge C. C. Clegg, previous, and his committee, however, insist that he had reached Europe from India, and the commanders eventually adopted a middle course, for a Reuter telegram asserts that sentries were placed to prevent looting. Hence it is presumed that the imperial buildings, although captured, will not be destroyed.

The fires appear to be incendiary and to be caused by the Chinese themselves.

All the dispatches point to the fact

FIRES IN PEKING.

STREET FIGHTING STILL GOES ON.

Dissensions Said to Exist Among the Officers of the Allied Forces Which May Complicate Matters.

Gen. Chaffee Retires That the Chinese Have Been Substantially Punished Already, but the Russian Commander Thinks Not.

London, Aug. 24.—Fires, fighting and dissension are apparently following in the wake of the relief of Peking. The Daily Mail publishes skis, Col. Modl and five other officers.

"In the meanwhile the allied troops stormed and captured another gate and entered the city."

"We found the imperial government had fled and that the legations were in great distress."

The dispatch concludes with the statement of the recent attacks on the legations. During the siege the legation had five men killed and 20 wounded.

Had to Fight All Day.

Tokio, Aug. 24.—According to dispatches received here from Peking, the Japanese troops sent to occupy the imperial palace there on August 15 had to fight all day because they were repelled by the Chinese.

Thus a decisive action was impossible. On the 16th, however, they occupied the principal gate of the palace, the city being nearly cleared of the enemy.

SETTLEMENT EXPECTED.

Members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers to Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Officials of the Republic Iron and Steel Co. and the Illinois Steel Co. deny that there is any strike as August 17, declaring that a great fire was then raging in the imperial city.

Gen. Chaffee, so it is asserted, maintained that the Chinese had been adequately punished already and that it would be unwise to take the imperial buildings.

Gen. Chaffee, so it is asserted, commanders eventually adopted a

What Other Editors Say!

CALLS CANTRILL DOWN.

Colonel Nelson After the Great Political Judge.

COURTS METHODS EXPOSED.

Louisville Evening Post.
The ballot-box has been overthrown in Kentucky, and the Jury-box too.

That was the whole meaning of Colonel Nelson's address to Judge Cantrill on Kentucky yesterday.

Colonel Nelson appears for Yousey, who has been promised immunity and a competency for life if he would testify, or "confess" all the facts that would "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." Yousey has refused the proposition. That refusal is the evidence of Yousey's innocence. If guilty, he surely would jump at such an offer.

In his refusal the screws have been turned time and again on Yousey. The corrupt press has been filled with numerous statements of confessions from Yousey and from others calculated to force Yousey to turn state's evidence. Witness the statement during Yousey's trial to identify against Yousey, merely to alarm Yousey. The prompt action of the gallionette Saturday, "the neatness and dispatch" with which the required verdict was delivered, all are supposed to weaken Yousey.

Then came the Yousey Jury. It was drawn from the wheel; it was called by a Deputy Sheriff from a large Democratic Precinct.

Colonel Nelson protested. He demanded a trial by a jury of his peers. He referred with respect to the civil rights guaranteed to every citizen by our Constitution, and he insisted that the Court go to the wheel and draw from the wheel the names of the men who were to try his client. Then with great earnestness he said:

"My information is that all but one of the sixty men summoned are of one political party, although at least 40% of the population of Kentucky are members of the other party. This one, a man named John Gardner, is a Republican, and I am told that he is a Democrat. John Gardner, a Democrat, in that Precinct, and that the wrong ones was summoned. I demand that the 60 men be re-summoned. Cantrill seemed to be reasoning for a verdict of guilty. He gave instructions that were beyond the pale of reason where the defendant was presumed to be innocent until proven guilty. He gave instructions that the prosecution had failed to prove its case, and almost at the last moment Cantrill injected an amended instruction which amounted to a peremptory charge to the Jury to bring in a verdict of guilty."

Now, these facts are true and the Court will give me a jury drawn according to the law, as we construe it, and our client is to be tried before a panel of his peers, if that will," he concluded.

To this arraignment of the processes of his Court, Judge Cantrill himself replied:

"I do not think the selection of this venue needs any investigation. I gave notice that at the end of the Powers trial, when the 60 men were summoned, and on Thursday I told the Sheriff to summon the venire. On Saturday, when the 60 men were summoned, although there was no occasion for it. The Sheriff used his own discretion, and I do not believe it, but the proof failed to show it. Evan he alleged accomplices, three of whom testified, failed to bring out anything to connect him with it. The only witness who testified to a material fact that gave color to the charge was confessedly perjured, and the perjurer is in jail, yet
